

Mock Caldecott Awards Chat - 5/18/2011

- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Hello - My favorite on the list is Little White Rabbit- What's yours?
- Sharon (PARA) : Back again so soon. Hello!
- Laurie (DEMA) : Hello again!
- Keri @ Hackensack : Hello!
- Lizzie @ Leonia : Long time, no see.
- Maria@Washington Twp. : Hello
- Michelle (MONT) : There were so many great new books this year. My favorite so far is These Hands by Mason. A positive book about Civil Rights, simple with powerful illustrations
- Kate- Dumont : Hello, again! I love White Rabbit too, and Where's Walrus is incredibly clever.
- Laurie (DEMA) : White Rabbit was very cute. I also loved Owly and Wormy Friends All Aflutter - wordless, but the pictures are so expressive!
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : You know what 2 I adore but didn't make it to the list: Perfect Square and Press Here ----Very cute and clever
- Michelle (MONT) : Another favorite is Owly - Friends All A Flutter is never in for long - fans of the graphic novel are also reading this picture book
- Lizzie @ Leonia : Anything Owly is popular here.
- Arlene@BCCLS : Greetings, gang!
- Kate- Dumont : I have to agree. I did Press Here with the kids during storytime and everyone became FASCINATED with it. It has not been in my library since. You forget it's a book.
- Michelle (MONT) : Press Here is so clever - however the author is from France so it wasn't put on the favorites -
- Sharon (PARA) : Have you considered the Marc Twain bio? I thought it was cute and quite clever.
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : @Kate- I love that it's interactive with no batteries or flashing lights or pull tabs- so simple yet so creative!
- Alicia (Teaneck) : Where's Walrus allows for so much imagination - the kids love to comment on what they think is going on in the illustrations
- Kate- Dumont : @ Laura- I know! In a way it's magical because you see the kids forget about the book and get excited with what they are doing.
- Kate- Dumont : I think Where's Walrus' artwork is a great, it's smart and it's a throwback to that Mad Men style of art
- Michelle (MONT) : Another storytime favorite, with clever die cuts is I Spy with my little eye by Gibbs - after reading it we all play the game -
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Ant and Grasshopper had stunning artwork too!
- Laura@rfpk : Where's Walrus is different and unusual. I think this is my favorite so far. Henkes is as always great but nothing new
- Laura@rfpk : I also love Press Here really unique.

- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Henkes is going to be at the BEA breakfast on Tuesday- very excited!!
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : I haven't read bedtime for bear yet...how was it?
- Michelle (MONT) : I have to leave to do a Mother Goose Story time @ 2:00 - keep the suggestions coming, don't forget to vote on the Youth Services page and add some titles that are your favorites.
- Maria@Washington Twp. : My New Favorite is I Spy With My Little Eye, by Edward Gibbs Just used it today is Story Time and the kids loved it.
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Is night flight about amelia too?
- Laurie (DEMA) : Like we were saying in Newbery, lots of books this year on Amelia, Jane Goodall, etc...seems like they have a historical women theme.
- Marie@Hasbrouck Heights : I have to try that one! I love finding new story time books.
- Lizzie @ Leonia : This, in the wake of(or continuing on) the Lincoln/Darwin deluge.
- Marie@Hasbrouck Heights : AS for Henkes book, I love it. It has such kid appeal, too. Not too sure about Where's Walrus. Wordless books don't go over well. Maybe I could try it in story time. I have heard of people doing that with wordless books.
- Lizzie@Leonia : Henkes is another popular one. Has he won before?
- Kate-Dumont : he won for Kitten's First Full Moon, which I absolutely love.
- Laurie (DEMA) : Kitten's First Full Moon is SUCH a cute story.
- Lizzie@Leonia : Riiight...A story time favorite here!
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Does anyone have any more suggestions before we wrap up Caldecott?
- Kate-Dumont : That's why I am on the fence about White Rabbit. I enjoyed it, I liked it, but as RFPKLaura said.. it seems just to be Henkes.
- Marie@Hasbrouck Heights : Michele and Alicia, thanks for those two great titles. I just put them in my cart.
- Kate-Dumont : Maybe not Caldecott, but a great book is Rosenthal's "Al Pha Bet"
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Please remember that you MUST RSVP for the mixer on Friday- (committee members too!)to arlene@bccls.org!!!!
- Marie@Hasbrouck Heights : I think we have a lot of great titles coming out in the next few months. It will be exciting.
- Laurie (DEMA) : If you have a favorite on our list, don't forget that you can vote for it on the Youth Services web site:

- Lizzie@Leonia : Sure hope so! But I have to run. It's Gaming Afternoon! Bye!
- Laura Rifkin CLTR : Thanks everybody - great chats today- hope to see you all Friday!!

- Laurie (DEMA) : Take care, all!
